SHOCHU

Tokyo's drink of choice, Shochu, is a versatile spirit. It is made from a variety of ingredients and is typically 25% alcohol giving it a mildness that allows it to easily be paired with Japanese cuisine. Our chef swears that it doesn't give you a hangover, but you be the judge...

PREMIUM SAKE

Kikuhime Kukuri Hime

菊姫
菊理姫

1200
720 ml

*Ishikawa prefecture
brewery est. 1570*

This is a limited release ginjo that is aged for over 10 years and acquires a golden color. It has a soft palate but is characterized by wild and gamy aromas.

Dassai "beyond"

瀬祭 磨き
その先へ

1200
720 ml

*Yamaguchi prefecture
brewery est. 1770*

Very little information is released about this highly sought, top-class junmai daiginjo; everything about its creation is top secret, including its ultra-low milling rate.

Daishichi Myoka Rangyoku

大七
妙花蘭曲

800
720 ml

*Fukushima prefecture
brewery est. 1752*

Only 1131 bottles of it in existence, this exquisite aged kimoto method sake was made in 2007 in a hand-blown Murano glass bottle.

Kokuryu Nizaemon

黒龍
二左衛門

800
720 ml

*Fukui prefecture
brewery est. 1804*

A junmai daiginjo named after Kokuryu's founder Nizaemon Ishidaya. Amazingly silky. This sake can only be obtained through a lottery process.

Tatsuriki Akitsu

龍力
秋津

680
720 ml

*Hyogo prefecture
brewery est. 1923*

The brewers of this pristine sake commit much of their focus on the rice. Top-tier Yamada Nishiki is carefully milled down to 35% over 100 hours.

Born "dreams come true"

梵
夢は正夢

560
1000 ml

*Fukui prefecture
brewery est. 1860*

Aged 5 years, this rich yet refreshing sake is made from natural spring water from 604 feet below. Its deep, sustaining flavor flows from the first sip to the final finish.

Hakkaisan Kongoshin

八海山
金剛心

450
800 ml

*Niigata prefecture
brewery est. 1922*

This sake is matured at -2 °C for two years. The name Kongoshin means "unwavering heart," which represents the exquisite taste and aroma of this super-premium sake.
